Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Twentieth Annual Report of the Bureau of Labor and Printing: Of the State of North Carolina To His Excellency, Eobest B.Glenn Cj 0 Governor. Sik: In submitting to yon the Twentieth (my sixth) Annal Eeport of the Bnrean of Labor and Printing, as provided by law, Twish to assure you that the information presented is as complete as it has been possible to ascertain with the facilities available under existing conditions. In the language of a predecessor, I will say: The appropriation is so small that it is impossible to visit the mines, or to do a good many things that the law requires. However, this report shows a material advancement along industrial lines in the State, and actual conditions existing among the laboring classes of manufacturing districts, indicated by the testimony of the manufacturers themselves. These statistics indicate the educational and financial condition of operatives in the mills and factories of various kinds; wages paid, the hours employed, etc. Also, the authorized amount of capital invested, number of spindles and looms in operation, power...
