Excerpt: . the auncient and holy Doctours as Austeyne Chrisostome and others expressly avouche the Lordes bodye and bloud to be offered of the ministers, whych thyng they wold never have affyrmed oneles they were offered so in verye dede, and that accordyng to Gods worde. In dede it is fulle certayne that the sayd Doctours avouche both thee LORDE S bodye and hys bloude to bee sacrificed but not after oure Catholiques meaninge. For why they understand by the sacryfyce of christes body and bloud done by the minister only the resemblance and memorye of the true and bloody sacryfyce of the sayd body and bloude which is the communion and not any real and true sacrifice of the same executed by the priest as the catholiques mistake them. We often use to saye (sayth Austen to bonifaceus) when easter approacheth nyghe, that to...
