Their rivers run with narrowed bounds. 11 That trees are great promoters of lakes and rivers, appears from a well known fact in North America; for, since the woods and forests have been grubbed and cleared, all bodies of water that were considerable a century ago, will not now drive a common mill. Natural History of Selborne--Kalms Travels in North America. CAN-TO I. Irondequoit was darkly lying. -- Stanza I. By some writers the word was written Tyrondequait, by others Irondequat. Smith in his history of New York, alludes to a public trading house at Irondequat in the Senecas land. The name given on modern maps, to this romantic bay, is Irondequoit. With arching neck and a air of pride The white swan floated on the tide. --Stanza n. The authors father, a pioneer of Western New York, informed him, that in...
