We feel that whatever we profess and whatever we believe is an inspiration which comes from them and that their hearts beat in unison with the sentiments which we will express here to-night. The Republican Club claims to be the pioneer in the celebration of the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln. The significance of the event and its relations to the times, and the character and achievement of this wonderful man have been illustrated here during the fourteen years of these discussions better than anywhere else. No civic, military, or naval hero deserves or can maintain an annual commemoration unless his works and his principles are of continuing vitality. The man of the hour has his mission and performs his task. The everyday problems which are continually arising to be solved could not be successfully met without him. It is his fate to have for his reward only the applause of his contemporaries. We celebrate in our country the birthdays of George Washington, Alexander Hamilton, Thomas Jefferson, General Jackson, General Grant, and Abraham Lincoln. It is a singular and significant fact that the living principles and ideas of all these statesmen are the living principles and ideas of the Republican Party of to-day. It is a still more significant fact that...
