Does special creation by an awesome God explain how we got here, or does evolution make more sense? Is God real, or is chance in charge? Many people talk about God but struggle to answer important questions such as: Who is God? Why should we trust him? Does God care and is he powerful enough to handle my life? Now The Playdough Poem illustrates how a handful of modeling clay can help us understand answers to these questions. The book's unique approach makes learning and sharing fun. Features include: --Three books in one: English, Spanish and French --Rhyming text for easy memorization --Colorful multicultural pictures --A Gospel acrostic that helps readers share God's truth in six rhyming lines You'll be amazed at how a simple object lesson can teach children and adults alike that nothing--including planets, plants, animals, and people--could make itself by accident, even if the process continued for a million years. God truly is the Creator of the universe!.
