Excerpt: .The Jews answer: For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. In replying, Jesus first frees himself from their charge, and then establishes the truth of his divine claim. Vs. 34-38. By his defense Jesus does not renounce his claim to deity; but he argues that if the judges, who represented Jehovah in their appointed office, could be called gods, in the Hebrew scriptures, it could not be blasphemy for him, who was the final and complete revelation of God, to call himself the Son of God. Jesus further replies that he was not only innocent of blasphemy; but, which is more important, that he has stated in reference to his Person only that which is true. His divine works of mercy and love are proofs of his oneness with God. If they will not believe his words, they should at least be convinced by these signs. The attempt to stone Jesus is for the time abandoned, and while his enemies are planning his arrest, he escapes from their hands, and withdraws from the city to a safe retreat east of the Jordan. Here, in the scene of the ministry of John the Baptist, many persons, influenced by the memory of the testimony of John and further by the miracles of Jesus, became his disciples. Their faith formed a striking contrast to the unbelief which had been reaching its climax in...
