Excerpt: . . . 11 and certain copyright offenses, and the treatment of repeat offenders. We continue to study the interpretation and will monitor its implementation by the Chinese courts. During JCCT IPR Working Group meetings on May 26 and May 27, 2005, a full complement of technical experts from both sides discussed ways to work better to-gether to combat IP theft in China. In particular, U. S. and Chinese law enforcement agencies exchanged views on increasing information and expertise sharing, and co-operation in individual cases, including with respect to investigation techniques. The USPTO and the U. S. Copyright Office conferred with their counterparts on a number of topics, including ways to enhance IPR monitoring of trade fairs in China and the expansion of crackdown campaigns that closed down the infamous Silk Alley Market in Beijing and a number of illegal street stalls and kiosks...
