Dept. of Energy, 2005- OCLC Number: (OCoLC)129648462 Subject: Federal aid to small business -- United States -- Periodicals. Excerpt: . . . L. Prepare Small Business Annual Report to the DOE Secretary and the SBA Administrator DOE has gathered the necessary information for the preparation and submission of the FY 2006 Annual Report. X. SMALL BUSINESS RESEARCH and TECHNOLOGY PROGRAMS In addition to contracting with small businesses, other opportunities involving research and development, technology development and transfer technology are targeted to small business. The inclusion of this achievement provides a more accurate view of the Departments overall efforts on behalf of small business. A. Small Business Innovation Research Program (SBIR) The SBIR is managed by the Departments Office of Science, and supports small businesses with strong research capabilities in science or engineering areas critical to Departmental missions. In FY 2006, the SBIR program obligated about 99, 967, 019 to small businesses to perform research and development of innovative advanced concepts aimed at addressing scientific or engineering problems. For a list of SBIR projects, please visit <http://www.science.doe.gov/sbir/newweb/awards.htm>. B. Small Business Technology Transfer Program (STTR) The STTR is a competitively awarded, three-phase Federal Government program, designed to stimulate technological innovation and provide opportunities for small businesses. The STTR is managed by the Office of Science. It supports small businesses with strong research capabilities, and issues grants that involve substantial cooperative research collaboration between a small business and a non-profit research institution. The total STTR agency obligations for FY 2006 amounted to 12, 162, 300. Of this total, 9, 220, 796 was for small businesses. The STTR projects were...
